SCHWAB LAUNCHES EDUCATIONAL FORUMS FOR ACTIVE TRADERS

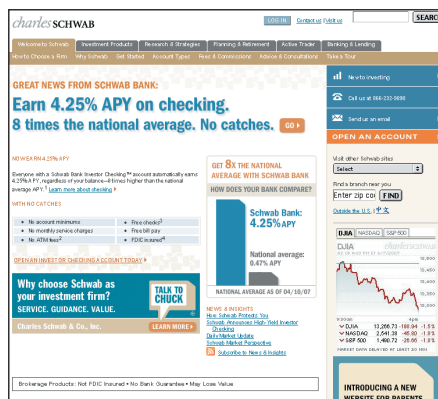

Regional Charles Schwab Trading Forums will focus on the broad investment and financial needs of investors who trade actively. The first two, in Phoenix and Seattle, were held in the spring, and those planned for Chicago and San Jose will be held this autumn. The events are not limited to Schwab clients. These hands-on events are an element of Schwab's education and support services intended to help active traders sharpen their trading and investing skills. The forums provide participants with an opportunity to speak with Schwab and other experts, while also allowing them to meet like-minded traders. John Bollinger gave the keynote in Phoenix and Seattle.
