

POWERSHARES, DEUTSCHEBANK LAUNCH EXCHANGE TRADED NOTES

Deutschebank and Invesco PowerShares Capital Management announced they would launch eight exchange traded notes (ETNs) linked to the performance of industrial metals and crude oil. The ETNs will be traded on the NYSE ARCA. Each of the eight ETNs are senior unsecured obligations of Deutschebank.

The screenshot shows the Powershares homepage with a banner at the top stating "Leading the Intelligent ETF Revolution". Below it, a section titled "Announcing a Revolutionary Way to Invest: Powershares Active ETFs" discusses the launch of eight new actively managed ETNs. It includes a table comparing these new ETNs with existing Powershares products like PPA (PowerShares Active Short-Term Bond Fund) and PFO (PowerShares Active Multi-Cap Fund). The page also features a "Long, Short and Leveraged exposure to commodities" section with a chart showing wind turbines.
